History

1956-1957

Dear Diary,

Ah, a Freshman at last! What a thrilling, yet frightening sensation it was to pass over the threshold leading us to four years of trials and tribulations as high school students.

In September, all ninety-four of us were herded into the study hall to hold our first class meeting. Several teachers were present to explain the purpose of these meetings and emphasize the importance of attentiveness but chaos resulted! Finally, after order was established, we attended to the business of the meeting. Mr. Richard Brown was chosen as class advisor, and Mr. A. J. Leonardi, as assistant advisor, heading a slate of officers composed of Dan Canales, president, Nancy Rice, vice president, Louis DeMayo, secretary, and Dixie Pierson, treasurer.

The class then proceeded to organize committees to search out ways in which we could begin the long and laborious task of building up a well padded treasury for our eventual graduation. The Ways and Means Committee suggested several projects and the class voted approval.

Several of the sponsored activities that proved successful were: the movie, "To Hell and Back" held during the month of January at the local Walden Theatre; an April food sale at Hopkins Furniture Store; and a Spring dance held during the month of May at the Mitchell School Gymnasium.

Soon June approached and our Freshman activities were terminated. The class looked forward to the coming year, when we could again sponsor projects, the completion of which would add to our already well-established treasury.

1957-1958

As Sophomores, the first day of school was a most exciting one. We all felt well-oriented to high school life, and were eager and anxious to begin school activities after a long summer of fun and frolic.

The class chose as advisor, Mr. David M. Beall, and as officers, Dan Canales, president, Nancy Rice, vice president, Susan Agostini, secretary, and Whit Robbins, treasurer.

The year started on a most successful note with a Thanksgiving Dance held in November, preceded by an old-fashioned Box Social. As our next activity, a public supper was held at the Mitchell School Cafeteria and many hungry Williamstownites were served. During the Spring months, a Record Hop, a Round and Square Dance and a Foodsale were sponsored. The class also sold monogrammed clothing throughout the year as an additional project.

During the interim, Sandra Gauthier, Ray Allison, Tom Seaton, Texanna Jones, and Larry Goodell left W. H. S. halls to continue their education elsewhere. However, their absence was offset by the addition of the following new members: Jean Graham, Eileen Garner, Mary Schimmel, Sally Stocking, Mary Ann Maconga, and Francis Gray.

The end of the school calendar year reared and once again brought activities to a close. But, this did not halt us. During the summer months, the class held weekly dances at Sand Springs under the leadership of Mrs. H. P. Stabler and Mr. Jerome H. Norton. This supplementary activity insured our Junior year of a successful financial commencement and established a precedent for future ambitious classes.

1958-1959

With our Junior year, we found a great responsibility attached to this position of leadership as upper-classmen.

Mrs. H. P. Stabler was elected class advisor and the officers elected to assist her were; Francis Gray, president, Nancy Rice, vice president, Judy Archambault, secretary, and Paulette Desrochers, treasurer.

In the early Fall, the class held a foodsale and the movie "King Creole" at the Walden Theater. It was while planning and organizing these activities, that we missed the help of our former classmates; Gerald Darling, Charles Ellsworth, Roy Ellsworth, David Lanoue, Mike Ouellette, Tom Smith, Mike Miller, Lee Rhodes, Whit Robbins, Dixie Pierson, Bev DeSantis, and Martha Wood. But, additional assistance and fresh ideas came from the following students who joined us during our Junior year: Harold Butler, Chris O'Connor, Joanne Agnew, Eloise Davis, David Allen, Barb Thompson, and Sandra Butler.

The big event of our Junior year, our Junior Class Prom "Winter Twilight", was held at the Williams Inn in the latter part of December, and served as a proper conclusion to the months festivities. A Record Hop was held in May at the Mitchell Gym and as a special feature, our class offered our own, Fran Gray, as Disk Jockey. Soon after, the class took over the entire school parking lot and held a most successful car wash, a first at W.H.S. On the evening of June 14th, the class participated in the traditional class night ceremony and as a part of this ceremony, received the symbolic candles handed down to us by the Graduating Seniors.

It is now our Senior year at W. H. S. and graduation is approaching. Unbelievable! As Freshmen, it seemed it would be an eternity before we would don our caps and gowns and march down the aisle to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance."

We have reached the highest level of high school education!

Class officers were elected under the advisorship of Mrs. M. Monahan and Mr. Charles E. Kochenour. They were: president, Francis Gray, vice president, Nancy Rice, secretary, Pauline Desrochers, and treasurer, Shawn Kirkpatrick.

Before the year was to advance further, our advisors spoke to us on the importance of this year in our lives. They also stated that to meet necessary graduation expenses, 100% co-operation and boundless energy must be promised.

Students who were not with us to complete our high school years at W. H. S. were: Art Lefave, Francis Heisler, Reggie Galvin, JoAnn Leavens, Carol Nehls, Shirley Taylor, David Desormaux, Stephen Gray, Gerald Tatro, and Donald Love.

In September, we held a "Welcome Freshman Dance" in the Mitchell Gym, and during football season, we were granted permission to sponsor the rallies preceding home games. On December 18th, we held our Senior Class play, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay" by Cornelia Otis Skinner and Emily Kimborough. This lighthearted comedy was enjoyed by a capacity audience.

The selling of Christmas cards was undertaken, but its success was not what we had anticipated. Basketball season was a profitable one, for we sold candy, soda, programs, and pom-poms during each game.

And then preparation for Graduation activities began! The Yearbook Committee was organized and class pictures, orders for invitations, announcements, and caps and gowns were taken. In between all this, we managed to sponsor a public supper, a scrap drive, and a car wash, but soon we again had to concentrate our efforts on our approaching graduation.

On June 15th Commencement activities officially began. On this date we held our Senior Class Banquet at the Elwal Pines. Soon after, on June 17th, the Senior Prom was held at the Williamstown Lodge, and then, June 21st, GRADUATION.

This day, our last at W.H.S. brings to us in the graduation class many mixed emotions. Sadness comes with thoughts of leaving our Alma Mater, but happiness is present also, for it is this day that marks the beginning of an exciting new and challenging life.

So it is, Dear Diary, that we leave you now to embark on our journey of independence.

MISS FREDRICKA GRADY

Children's Mission Hospital

Nairobi, Africa

Dear Freddie,

You were greatly missed at our class reunion last weekend, but everyone enjoyed your letter immensely, and all were impressed with the wonderful work you have been doing with the children at the hospital.

I can now answer all your questions concerning our former classmates, as we had the opportunity, during the weekend, to find out just what each member has been doing since graduation.

CHRIS TOLLE was kept busy during the week, as he offered to furnish transportation for anyone needing it. He is now owner and pilot of the famous Shmoo Airlines (motto Ballyhoo Shmoo). Among his passengers were DON BOURDON, LOUIE DEMAYO, and FRANK MORANDI, who have just signed a long-term contract with "The Stretchables", the All-American basketball team. Accompanying them were EDDIE MADDEN, manager of the team, and Lou's wife and most ardent fan, JUDY BANAS. NINA NESS and CAROLE ARCHAMBEAU, stewardesses for a rival air line, gallantly offered their services for the cause.

Several other classmates have followed your lead and ventured to distant and more romantic lands for their livelihoods. SALLY STOCKING is now with the United Nations as a French interpreter. Before coming to Williamstown for a short vacation, she was stationed in Paris. We were all intrigued by tales that BUTCH DAVIS, LINDA LIDDLE, and SANDY GARNER told us. Butch has just returned from the Belgian Congo, where he was head of a large safari. As proof of his exploits, he produced a small kinkajou which proved to be just a bit too friendly as the evening progressed. Sandy and Linda cut short their trip through Spain to be here. They are making a detailed study of bullfighting techniques for the newly-formed Bennington Bullfighters Association. COTTIE BUTLER, on tour of Europe as "Macbeth", and his wife, CHRIS O'CONNOR, were unable to be present, but sent a wire which was read by FRAN GRAY. Fran, incidentally, is mayor of East Noodle, Connecticut, and is assisted by his dutiful secretary, JOANNE AGNEW.

While we were having dinner at the Williams Inn, I had a chance to catch up on the activities of some of our other classmates. It seems the spirit of educational reform instilled at W.H.S. inspired a group of civic-minded students to work toward this goal. JIM CASEY, with the support of PAUL McCANN, RONNIE BROWN, and DAN CANALES, five years ago founded the J. M. Casey College of Arts in Maine.

Do you remember the "Beatnik" craze at school during our senior year? JEANNIE GRAHAM never quite recovered from its effects, and organized the Beat Bongo Bangers Club in Melbourne, Florida.

MARY LEWIS was recently appointed society editor of "Ladies Home Journal", and working with her are JEAN BRATCHER and NADINE ADELSON. ALAN LONCTO is the well-known cartoonist for the Saturday Evening Post.

After dinner, we were all anxious for dancing to get under way, as we had been offered the services of one of the top orchestras in the country - - - the inimitable BILL MOODY and his Moodmakers, featuring Bill on sax and TOM STOKES on trumpet. Soloists with the orchestra are MAUREEN FIELD and RALPH FRESSOLA (I'm sending along a picture of the group that Bill autographed especially for you.) Ralph, by the way, is working with VICTOR LUCIER on a secret missile project down on Cape Canaveral. Both informed us that plans are top secret and, when completed, will change the whole course of science.

Incidentally, our reunion was well covered. BOB PHELPS took many photographs for "Life", and PENNY AGOSTINI gave us excellent press notices in her paper, The New York Times.

On Saturday, we all went out to South Williamstown for a picnic and swim. SANDY WALSH and PIDGE SCHIMMEL, co-stars of the play "I Couldn't Care Less" which recently completed its successful run on Broadway, are spending the summer at their home here, and eagerly offered it for our use. With them in Williamstown is their manager, DAVE ALLEN.

At the picnic we were greeted by more members of the Class of '60 who had been unable to attend the festivities of the night before. KATHY ESTES and GINNY WALSH operate a thriving swimming pool business, and before the afternoon was over they had six pool orders. BARB RHODES and ELLEN TAFF are doing a splendid job with their nursery school in Pownal. MARY ANN MACONGA now operates the Petersburg Mountain Ski-Tow. WARREN STEWARD runs the Winooski, Vermont Bowlitorium. JUDI ARCHAMBAULT is a leading hair stylist at Jordan Marsh's in Boston, and BOB CARY is head waiter at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York.

It was surprising to note the number who have remained in Williamstown and the Berkshires through the years. JOHN ROSENBERG is acclaimed as the best mechanic in Massachusetts, and with his partner, HENRY LABEAU, owns and operates Rosenberg's Garage on the Corner of Simonds and Sand Springs Roads. BARB ELLSWORTH has her hands full managing the Henderson Road Rest, a thriving motel. Where W.H.S. used to be (Do you know there are people here who refuse to believe there was ever a Williamstown High School?) is a new Business Administration building, housing private offices of PEGGY LANCTO, LINDA ARCHAMBEAULT, and THERESA JOLIN. The "Y Diner" is in the capable hands of WILLIS BOYER, who has made it one of the most pleasant night spots in the county. DAVE BERGERON operates the recently enlarged and modernized "M-D", with GINNY GARRISON as waitress. ELOISE DAVIS serves as hostess, and on Wednesday nights her famous loganberry tarts are featured. JIM SMITH is owner and chief electrician of the General Refrigeration Company. DIANE HARTMAN, owner of Hartman's Garage on North Street, offered everyone with a car a tankful of gas for the trip home. JOHN NOTSLEY and DEBBIE McALPINE have made a real success of their tractor and farm equipment business in North Adams. NAN RICE has just been elevated to the responsible position of Official Gum Sampler at the Berlin Mountain Soft Cough Drop Co.

Since your last visit, the new Community Hospital has been erected in Greylock. DR. SHAWN KIRKPATRICK is head surgeon and is ably assisted by his two capable nurses, PAULINE and PAULETTE DESROCHERS. FRAN RICH, internationally-known for his discovery of a sulfur which is completely odorless when burned, is in charge of the lab.

We were all very sorry that you couldn't be with us to share memories and renew old friendships. Several other classmates were also unable to attend - - - VALLERIE FLANDERS is interviewing stars in Hollywood (she's considered Hedda Hopper's greatest rival); DUANE HUSE and DAVE TOWNE are in the process of llama-shearing at their prosperous Llama Lair Ranch in Wyoming; PRISCILLA THOMPSON is in Kentucky showing her trophy-winning roan, Hoople, in the Green Gardens Horse Show; and CAROLE BRESSETT, private secretary to the president of Pluff Tennis Balls, Inc., is making a tour of the West, giving demonstrations and talks on the merits of a Pluff tennis ball.

Well, I guess that takes care of everyone. Write soon, and send your next letter to my New York address. I'll be spending the next few months there, putting the finishing touches on my new novel, "Tiger in Disguise".

Yours,

Sydney

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The Senior Class Play presentation this year, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay", by Cornelia Otis Skinner and Emily Kimbrough, took place on December 18, 1959 at the Mitchell School Theater under the direction of Jerome H. Norton of the high school faculty. The play was presented to a capacity audience and was considered a great success.

The play, itself, chiefly concerns two young girls, Cornelia and Emily, who take an ocean voyage to Paris. The ocean voyage, their activities and acquaintances on board, and their subsequent adventures in Paris serve as the main subject matter of this play. Outstanding in this sequence of the story were Sandra Walsh and Mary Schimmel as Emily and Cornelia, Louis DeMayo and Michael Steele as Leo and Dick, the girls' shipboard acquaintances, and Thomas Stokes and Susan Agostini as Cornelia's well-meaning, but often frustrated parents.

Highlights of the play included:

Pidge Schimmel's hilarious monologue in the Third Act and her terrific performance throughout the play;

Sandy Walsh's mock "ballet scene" and her equally remarkable performance throughout the play;

Fran Gray as the delightful and dashing Monsieur de la Croix complete with flowing red cape and powerful French accent;

Penny Agostini's unforgettable slip of the tongue, "Guess who's downstairs?— - - Lick and Deo! !"

The 1959-1960 basketball season was considered unsuccessful by the fact that the team compiled 3 wins while losing 15 to much stronger and taller teams. However, this year was successful in another way, needed experience was gained by the underclassmen and next year will prove to be a better year. The team, as a whole, didn't win any honors, but Capt. Lou DeMayo was named to the All-Berkshire Team while Francis Morandi was on the honorable mention list.

The team lacked one of the most important necessities of basketball and that is height. Bob Winton, Frank Morandi, and Mike Malloy carried most of this load. In the scoring column, Capt. DeMayo led the team, as well as being third highest scorer in the league. He had help from seniors Frank Morandi and Don Bourdon with Juniors Jerry Madden, Bob Winton, Alex Nagy and Jim Grady pitching in.

The season came to a close with a banquet for the Varsity and Junior Varsity teams and their cheerleaders as guests. The teams and coaches were guests of the Williamstown News while the cheerleaders were guests of the Student Council. At the dinner, trophies were awarded to Captain DeMayo, who received the captain's trophy and to Francis Morandi for the best foul shooting percentage. DeMayo also received a trophy given by the Williamstown News for the best all-around player. The banquet ended with guest speaker John Gross, Principal of Adams High School, giving an excellent speech on the four C's. Thus ended the 1959-1960 basketball season.

Despite the loss of three starters, one the leading hitter in the Northern Berkshire League, the 1960 Williamstown High Baseball team is looking forward to a successful season. Mr. William Clark, football coach for the past three years, has taken over the coaching job. He inherits eight lettermen and several promising newcomers from last year's team, which finished the season at nine and nine. Playing their last season are: co-captain Don Bourdon, catcher; co-captain Ed Madden, smooth fielding second-baseman; Frank Morandi, long-ball hitting third-baseman; and ace pitcher, Lou DeMayo.

DeMayo and Junior Jerry Madden have pitched well so far, Madden sporting a 3-3 record. Morandi, DeMayo and both Maddens are hitting .350 or more. Morandi leads the team in runs-batted-in, and is tied with Freshman Bill Leete with one home-run.

The team's strength lies in its defense, while it lacks batting power. The entire starting infield (Morandi at third, DeMayo and J. Madden at short, E. Madden at second, and Nagy at first) has played together through WHS and Babe Ruth League. The outfield corps is new and a little inexperienced, but has looked very good at this time. Freshmen Bill Leete and Eug Lepesqueur, Juniors Paul Lepesqueur and Bill Zoito make up the nucleus of the "pasture-patrol." Catching is a strong position with Bourdon and Sophomore John Weyers.

The team has been working hard and everyone has made sacrifices in order to improve themselves and their team. Because of all the work they've done, many people expect the team to finish the season high in the Northern Berkshire League standings.
